From the East:

Brethren,

Our ritual degree team was busy in April practicing for and participating in our annual District Ritual School which was held on the 8th and the 10th. Brother Mark Gioielli and Brother Craig Lowell did well with their assigned parts and we should be proud Princess Anne was so well represented. Thank you Mark and Craig. After the District School was over the team was back to practicing the ritual and initiated another new candidate on the 26th.

Thank you WB Scott Buchanan and WB Bert Cheatham for joining me in a VA Chip Child ID event held at the Princess Anne YMCA on Saturday, the 29th of April. We assisted in identifying 42 children, the weather was beautiful and a good time was had by all.

Princess Anne's 8th Annual Golf Classic Fundraiser will be held on Friday, May the 5th this year (THIS FRIDAY!!). The proceeds will benefit the Masonic Home of Virginia, Hope Haven Adult Home, the Shrine Transportation Fund, and Princess Anne Lodge #25. Hoping for a strong turn-out.

The Pungo Strawberry Festival is fast approaching (May 27th and 28th) which means another VACHIP event to be held once again in WB Page Eaton's front yard across from the carnival rides. This is a busy event, usually around 250 children, and we need plenty of volunteers. Please make plans to help out if possible, I will have a sign-up sheet at our Stated on Wednesday.

Brethren, thank you for your support.

Fraternally,

John Kellam
Worshipful Master
