From the East:

Brethren,

Our degree team continues its busy schedule with the recent initiation of a new member and also the passing of two of our Brethren to the Fellowcraft Degree. Great job by all those who participated in the degree work. Come out and support your Lodge and our new candidates as they continue their journey in Masonry.

Thank you to all the Brethren who came out to our February Stated Communication for the Official Visit of our DDGM, Right Worshipful Steve Allen Ridgeway. It was nice to see so many visitors from the District come out and compete for the District and the State Traveling Gavel. Willis V. Fentress No. 296 made a strong showing with 15 Brethren and took both gavel home.

On February 20th, Lynnhaven Lodge hosted a Masonic Blood Drive and Princess Anne was the host Lodge serving soup and snakes to the donors. Thank you to Brethren Dale Oran, Bobby Clark, Jim Bowen and Ricky Irving for volunteering to help with this endeavor. We had a good time talking with each other while preparing and serving the food.

We will continue our busy schedule in March with the Division Leadership Conference to be held at the Norfolk Masonic Temple on the 17th beginning at 6pm. Additionally our degree work and ritual school continue their efforts and can always use and welcome additional participants. Please come out and support your Lodge as we continue to move forward and grow. WB Bob Braswell is providing his traditional Corned Beef and Cabbage at our March Stated. I hope to see you all there.

Fraternally,

John Kellam
Worshipful Master
