August, 2016

From the East:

Brethren – Due to work commitments involving travel, I'll be forced to miss the next two Stated Communications beginning with our August 3rd Meeting. Never fear, however, as we have a deep bench and Brother John Kellam will be assuming the East. We will be balloting on a new candidate so come on out and ensure your ballot is counted. We have been doing very well growing our lodge having initiated 4 new EAs in the month of July! Please make sure you are a part of the vibrant new class of Brethren we are bringing into the Lodge. They are young and eager and will require some good old fashioned mentorship and Brother Love to set them on the correct Masonic Journey.

The 2nd Annual Lodge Pig Pickin' will be held at the Lodge this Saturday the 6th of August from 4-7pm. Yet another opportunity to bring the family, kids and grandkids out to the Lodge and enjoy some food and fellowship. Brother Jim Clark will be serving up a whole hog and his hush puppies along with some fixin's provided by our Stewards. Bring a desert if you would like, we'll take care of everything else! If weather permits, we'll be outside so bring chairs, blankets, lawn games, etc. I look forward to seeing you all there. This will be the second event in two months where we get our families involved so make sure you take advantage of it!. More events to follow in September and October!

We have our Masonic Blood Drive this month at Kempsville Lodge on 15 August from 2-7pm. Please make an effort to get out and donate some blood and enjoy seeing our Masonic interaction with the community! Blood can be donated anytime at the Pembroke Red Cross Station as well. Just be sure to inform RW Lank Malbone and myself so that we can register the Lodge for credit.

The Lodge degree team has another busy month with two upcoming Fellowcraft conferrals (a father and son, no less) to be conducted on the 24th and a MM conferral to be conducted on the 31st of the month. Please support Brother John Kellam and company as it takes a village to get these sorts of things done. Come out to the schools noted above and on the Lodge Calendar and take a part, learn a part and support your Lodge. Let's continue to build depth in our degree team and to expand our knowledge of the craft as we grow and strengthen our Lodge in the process!

Please make an effort to make the Stated on August 3rd!

Fraternally,
Scott Buchanan
Worshipful Master

Recent Events

16 Aug: Saturday Triple EA Conferral – Many thanks to Brother John Kellam and our Lodge Degree team for a tremendous effort to confer three Entered Apprentice Degrees in a single day. We conducted this on a Saturday and enjoyed the new format. Look for more of these in the future as we bring in new candidates!

16 Aug: Lodge Picnic – The Lodge Picnic is back! We had a great time despite the heat (we ended up hiding inside the Lodge) and had over 30 folks show. It was great to see everyone's families, especially the kids! Bring them back out for the Pig Pickin' in August!
