From the East:

Brethren,

I noticed yesterday that the leaves on the Virginia Creeper vines have begun to turn red, a sure sign that fall is upon us and the holiday season is just around the corner. I hope you are looking forward to spending time with family and friends throughout Thanksgiving and the upcoming Christmas Season.

Our degree team, headed up by Brother Mark Gioielli, was busy last month with ritual practice and the conferral of degrees. We recently initiated a new candidate and also raised our 10th Master Mason for the year. Give Brother Mark a call if you would like to help out the degree team as we are always looking for members to fill spots and take on active roles in furthering our Lodge. We meet most Monday and Wednesday evenings from 7:00pm - 8:30pm.

I received notice last week from Grand Lodge that our 2017 application for the James Noah Hillman Award has been reviewed and accepted. The presentation to our Lodge will be made early next year. Thank you to all the Brethren who set aside their busy schedules to make this achievement possible.

Our good Brother Ricky Irvine has volunteered to provide chili and all the fixin's at our next Stated Communication on November 1st. Come on out and enjoy the fellowship. Our District Deputy Grand Master has agreed to present a program on South Carolina Masonic ritual, a topic he is well qualified to speak on. I hope to see you there.

Sincerely and Fraternaly,

W.: John Kellam
